

Perspectives on a Career in the United States Foreign Service

Thursday, November 13, 7pm
Redmond Library

The World Speaker Forum presents Mr. Robert S. Luke, former Minister-Counselor for Political Affairs at the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo. Mr. Luke will discuss the challenges of living and working as a U.S. diplomat, with examples from his own career, including dealing with the aftermath of the 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake and nuclear accident and managing economic relations with China. The program will be moderated by Mr. Dale Watanabe, Executive Director, the Japan-America Society of the State of Washington (JASSW). The World Speaker Forum is a series of lectures and discussions by the people who have lived, worked and traveled abroad to share their first-hand experiences in different parts of the world.
